Future Oriented Financial Information

This Presentation also future-oriented financial information and financial outlook information (collectively, "FOFI") within the meaning of applicable securities laws, including but not limited to estimated revenues, EBTDA, sales, net sales, cost of sales and gross profit. The FOFI has been prepared by the Company's management to provide an outlook of the Company's activities including on the assumption of the completion of the Financing. Readers are cautioned that reliance on such information may not be appropriate for other purposes. The FOFI has been prepared based on the same assumptions, risk factors, limitations and qualifications as set forth in the above paragraphs and elsewhere specifically in this Presentation, as well as assumptions with respect to the costs and expenditures to be incurred by the Company, product development, capital equipment and operating costs, industry trends, foreign exchange rates, and general and administrative expenses. Management does not have firm commitments for all of the costs, expenditures, prices or other financial assumptions used to prepare the FOFI or assurance that such operating results will be achieved and, accordingly, the complete financial effects of all of those costs, expenditures, prices and operating results are not objectively determinable. The actual results of operations of the Company and the resulting financial results will likely vary from the amounts set forth in the analysis presented in this Presentation, and such variation may be material. The Company and its management believe that the FOFI has been prepared on a reasonable basis, reflecting the best estimates and judgments, and represent, to the best of management's knowledge and opinion, the Company's expected expenditures and results of operations. However, because this information is highly subjective and subject to numerous risks, including the risks discussed above, it should not be relied on as necessarily indicative of future results. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the FOFI or financial outlook contained in this Presentation.

These measures are provided as additional information to complement GAAP and IFRS by providing a further understanding of operations from management's perspective. Readers are cautioned that these non-IFRS or GAAP financial measures should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for measures of performance prepared in accordance with IFRS or GAAP.

The Company defines EBITDA as earnings before interest, tax, depreciation, and amortization. The Company considers EBITDA as a key metric in assessing business performance and considers EBITDA to be an important measure of operating performance and cash flow, providing useful information to investors and analysts.
